Music School

Performances

Our Tom Stoppard Theatre (capacity 300) and superb Music School (capacity 200) are professionally equipped and staffed by performance specialists. Home to a myriad of plays, musicals, drama workshops, concerts and symposiums, these two venues are highly regarded by performers from across the region.

In addition to this, the Sports Hall can also be used as a venue for major events including music festivals, wedding fairs, exhibitions and charity balls, and if you need extra space there is plenty of room in our grounds to set up marquees.

Fenwick-Smith House

Residential facilities

If you are looking for accommodation for your event, our four boarding houses offer a friendly and welcoming environment for your stay. Offering single, double and triple rooms, each house includes a dining kitchen, TV lounge and a garden area.

The houses are as follows:

- Faircote House (38 beds in 23 rooms)
- Orchard House (28 beds in 9 rooms)
- Dolman House (23 beds in 12 rooms)
- Fenwick-Smith House (40 beds in 27 rooms)

"The School offers excellent accommodation facilities with all the boarding houses very well equipped, complemented by wonderful food served in a very warm and welcoming manner. With all the sports facilities being available within a ringed fence, this allows for a very safe environment for all students and staff."

David Byas, former Yorkshire Cricket Captain and Director, DB Sport
